Word from the Lord

There is victory in the house today I say, because the glory of God shall come when you come and ask of me. For this salvation is so great and so awesome and free. There is nothing that can stop me when you come and ask. For I paid the price and you are free at last. Free from sin; free from shame; free from guilt; free from fear. And all you can do is come and bask in my presence and I will be there. I come inside of you and you come unto me. We become one and we walk together you see: Into a glorious harmony: Into a family that I have desired since the beginning of time.
